Historical note

Johns Hopkins Homewood Photography is a full-service, on-campus resource for professional photography and photographic services, which provides editorial and news photography, portraits, and research photography for Johns Hopkins University clients on the Homewood campus and beyond.

Scope and Contents note

The Homewood Photography negatives collection consists almost entirely of 35mm and 120mm photographic negatives ranging in date from 1980 to 2004, with the bulk dating from 1990 to 2004. Topics include students and faculty, including portraits of individuals, lectures, special lectures, awards, and receptions; university events, buildings, commemorations, dedications, and commencements; press images; sporting events, including lacrosse and basketball; alumni and alumnae events; and other topics related to campus life, the student body, faculty, community programs, and campus events. Some developed contact sheets are included, as well as some photographic prints and digital media (CD-Rs).

All of the negatives are sleeved in pages holding up to six strips of negatives for a total of 2,314 pages (with an estimated 8,100 strips of negatives total); of the 2,314 sleeve pages, 1,263 contain color negatives and 983 contain black and white negatives. There are approximately 35,000-45,000 unique images in the collection.

Arrangement note

The collection is arranged chronologically by date of shoot or event.
